Document Title/ECF No.	Basis for Sealing	Clearly Defined and Serious Injury that Would Result if the Relief is Not Granted	Why a Less Restrictive Alternative to the Relief Sought is Not Available	Any Prior Order Sealing the Same Materials in the Pending Action	Party in Opposition to Sealing, if any, and Basis
Joint Letter dated June 2, 2023 [ECF No. 109]	Letter contains references to SaveOnSP's internal financial information, comprising proprietary business information, regarding the amount of fees SaveOnSP has received from its clients from services related to Janssen drugs and the amount of savings on Janssen drugs that SaveOnSP has achieved for its clients. See ECF. No. 109 at 4-5, 7-9, 11.	If relief is not granted, SaveOnSP would be at a competitive disadvantage should its proprietary non-public business and financial information be disclosed to competitors and other market participants.	A redacted, public version of the exhibit is being filed [ECF No. 117-1]. It is believed that no less restrictive alternative is available to prevent the disclosure of SaveOnSP's proprietary business information.	No	JJHCS objects to SaveOnSP's proposed redactions and believes those sections should be part of the public record, like the rest of the text of the letter. JJHCS has informed SaveOnSP that it intends to file a letter with the Court explaining the basis of its objection.
